

NTC2026 Free Ticket Draw

Official rules of entry

To mark 30 years of NTC, the Institute of Licensing is giving away one full three day delegate ticket to NTC2026, including accommodation and board, in Stratford upon Avon. Entry is free. These rules set out how the draw works and what entrants are agreeing to.

Rules of entry

1. Entries open on Tuesday 1 September 2026 and close on Friday 25 September 2026.
2. Entry is open to anyone. There is a limit of one entry per person. Where more than one entry is received from the same person, only the first entry received will be counted.
3. The draw will be made on the date entries close. The winner will be selected at random and notified by email, using the address provided at entry.
4. The prize is one three day delegate ticket to NTC2026, including two nights' accommodation and board, in Stratford upon Avon.
5. The prize has no cash alternative and cannot be exchanged for credit or put towards another event. The ticket is not transferable to another event, but may be transferred to a colleague within the same organisation as the winner.
6. The winner may be invited to write a short testimonial about their experience. The Institute of Licensing may share the winner's name and testimonial on social media, in its news channels, and on its website.
7. The Institute of Licensing's decision on the winner is final.

Entry consents

By entering, entrants confirm the following, as indicated by the checkboxes on the entry form.
